SAPONIFIER,
OR
CONCENTRATED LYE,
THE READY FAMILY
SOAP MAKER.

An indispensable article in every family, whereby, with the ordinary kitchen grease combined with the Saponifier, they can make all the soap they use—hard, soft, or fancy. It will make hard water soft, and will clean Type to perfection—nothing equals it for cleaning and scouring.

Put up in quart bottles of 1 lb. each, which will make 4 to 5 lbs. common soap, or 10 to 25 gallons of soft soap, or 8 to 10 lbs. hard.

It has now been several years since this invaluable article was first introduced to the Public, and the estimation in which it is held, wherever known and tried, and the immense demand for it from all quarters, are conclusive proofs of its real merits and value as a family article.

Beware of Imitations!
The success of our article, like that of all discoveries of true merit and value, has induced unprincipled parties to imitate it. We therefore caution the public against worthless counterfeits, and to take none but the genuine, original and patented article, Manufactured only by the

COVENANT MUTUAL
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
OF SAINT LOUIS.

Office, north-east corner Second and Pine streets, basement. Boatmen's Saving Institution, St.
Louis.

WHAT IS LIFE INSURANCE?—1. It is the exercise of prudence, of benevolence. 2. It secures independence, domestic happiness to the widow and orphan. 3. Is more efficacious in its operations as regards the moral and domestic comfort of the people, and in its tendency to reduce luxury, by its restriction of pauperism, and possibly the influence of the law of the wisest statesmen; and, if universally adopted, would be a national blessing. 4. It affords to persons of every class, and in every station of life, the means to avoid much future misery to their families, and to render them independent of public or private charity.

While it is the manifest and imperative duty of every parent, during his life-time, to embrace all honorable means of supporting and advancing the interest of his offspring, so it is equally his duty to avoid leaving them at his death to grope their way in helpless poverty through an uncharitable world; and equally apparent is the duty of every husband to provide, in case of his death, for the surviving widow. To effect all which Life Insurance Companies have been formed, which enable every husband and parent, by the payment of a small sum, either in money or quarterly, to provide for his widow and children.

THE GREAT FAMILY PAPER.

THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

We intend to make the NEW-YORK LED-GER for 1861 such a paper as shall be of any other year in the past. Among our contributors will be the President of the United States, Edward Everett, George Bancroft, William Cullen Bryant, John G. Saxe, George P. Morris, N. P.
Willis, George D. Prentiss, Thomas Duffell, Allish, Sylvanus Cobb, Jr., Emerson Bennett, T. S.
Arthur, P. Hamilton Myers, Col. Walter B.
Dunlap, S. Compton Smith, John Estlin Cooke, Mrs. Seymour, Mrs. Southworth, Fanny Fernand Anna Cora Ritchie, Alice Cary, Mary Ferret, Marion Harland, Miss E. A. Dupuy, Mary Stanley Gibson, Phoebe Cary, and many Clergymen, Professors in Colleges, Statesmen, and other eminent writers residing in different parts of the Union.

Our corps of contributors for the coming year will be large, and will embrace such a variety of eminent talent, that every department of literature will be represented, and we shall be competent to do it ample and special justice. Whether it be popular romance, scientific essay, spy narrative, pathetic humor, humorous poem, old-fashioned love story, timely editorial, or any other ingredient of popular and elevated journalism, it is to be furnished, the LANCET corps will be sufficient for the task. In fact, our contributors will stand in front of the work as a matter of course, and we shall be able to select the best from which to select the very best. These facts, taken in connection with our largely increased staff, our facilities, experience, and our long and successful history, we think, in promising our readers a family paper for the year 1861 which will be more interesting and in every respect valuable, even than the Ledger has been in the past.

As an indication of the popularity of the Ledger, we need only state the simple fact that its circulation is larger than that of any other respected paper in the country. Its great success is owing to the fact that we select the best writers in the country, and spare no expense in getting up the best family paper—a paper of high moral tone. The exalted reputation of its contributors, the practical and invariably pure and healthy character of its articles, the care which is taken that not even one offensive word shall appear in its columns, and the superiority of its Tales and Sketches, have gained for the New York Ledger a position that no literary paper has ever before reached.

—Anna Cora Ritchie of Richmond, Va., and Col. Walter B. Dunlap, the author of the popular series of sketches, which were published in our columns some time since, each begin a story to the Ledger early in the new year. Mrs.
Southworth is also engaged upon a new tale.

In the next number of the Ledger, we shall publish a very interesting article, written exclusively for our readers, by Mrs. Fanny Fernand, from the pen of the Hon. George Bancroft.

It is with much satisfaction that we announce that Mr. Everett will continue his elegant and interesting contributions to the Ledger during the next year.

As this is the season of the year when Postmasters and others are in the habit of forming clubs, we direct their particular attention to OUR TERMS.

Single copies, $2 per annum; two copies, $3; four copies, $5; eight copies, $12. Postmasters and others who get up clubs can afterward add single copies at $1.00. The party who sends us $12 for a club of eight copies (all sent at one time) will be entitled to a copy of the Ledger for the year.

Terms invariably in advance. No subscriptions taken for a less period than one year. Canada subscribers must send twenty-six cents in addition to the subscription, to pay the American postage, which is half a cent a copy on every paper. The notes of all specie-paying banks taken at par. When a draft or check can conveniently be sent, it will be preferred, as it will prevent the possibility of the loss of money by mail.

—We employ no traveling agents.

FRANK GUY D. TAGGART.
TRENTON, N. J., March 4, 1858.

DR. C. M. JACKSON.
DEAR SIR: I had been troubled for some time with a cold and bad cough. I thought I would let it alone and it would get well, but instead of getting well it grew worse, until my lungs got so sore that I became seriously alarmed. Upon the recommendation of L. D. James, your agent in this place, I got a bottle of your cordial, and before it was out my cough was entirely well. I think it is the best remedy for a cough I ever saw, and have since recommended it to all my friends who have been troubled in that way. Yours truly, FRANK GUY D. TAGGART.

Prepared only by C. M. Jackson, No. 418 gists and storekeepers throughout the United States and Canada. Price 75 cents per bottle.

SOUTH CAROLINA ADRIFT.

Expression of Opinion at the South.
The Wilmington (N. C.) Herald, in commenting on the South Carolina Secession, says:

The only hope for our salvation as a great and powerful nation rests, under Divine Providence, with the conservative people of the remaining States. If they are true to themselves and to posterity; if they appreciate the priceless blessings which they enjoy—peace—prosperity—liberty—power —they will yet rescue their country from the extremity of peril by which it is threatened. We have not been satisfied that they will not—we have not yet abandoned all hope—we shall still cling fondly, even if desperately, to the Union—we shall not give up the ship, the noble ship which has borne us so bravely through all the storms of our history, until the last plank is swept from under our feet. But if disruption is inevitable, if we must sever the bonds by which our fathers bound us, we shall not celebrate our parting with music and banners, and all the vain rejoicings of a holiday sport. We will part from our Northern countrymen as a man parts from the bosom friend who has betrayed him—with indignation softened by grief at the necessity which compels the separation.

The Petersburg (Va.) Daily Express accompanies its announcement of the secession of South Carolina with the following word of disapproval:

South Carolina has chosen to exercise a sovereignty which we conscientiously believe belongs to her—but in so exercising it we are decidedly of the opinion that she has acted with a precipitancy, a levity and an indiscretion wholly irreconcilable with the responsibilities and obligation involved in the case. We have felt painfully and embarrassed in expressing views in opposition to her course, not because we entertained the least distrust in their soundness or propriety, but because we feared that they would be misconceived and misconstrued. We are just as much averse to a Black Republican party Administration as Mr. Rhett or Mr. Keitt—perhaps more so, for we certainly did not experience or anticipate the slightest joy at the news of Lincoln's election, which was received in South Carolina with the most enthusiastic applause.
We would not any sooner than the rankest immediate secessionists consent to remain in the Union a day longer than was necessary to give the opportunity for a consultation between all the aggrieved States with a view for a full, final and satisfactory adjustment.

The Richmond Whig thus denounces secession as cowardice in abandoning instead of fighting for our rights.

In our judgment, secession is submission —a tame and cowardly submission to admitted wrong and outrage—a base and in-gominous surrender of our rights, instead of a manly defense of them. For example the present sectional controversy has, mainly grown out of the question of the South in the Territories. The South objects, and justly objects, that the North seeks to deny her equality of rights in the Territories.
As those Territories were purchased by the common blood and treasure of both Northern and Southern men, the South maintains that she should be allowed an equal participation in the enjoyment of the Territories —and her claim is fair and equitable.

But because the North refuse to recognize the equal rights of the South in the Territories, the Secessionists propose to abandon and run away from all their rights in the Territories! The South asks for half of the Territories, which is justly her due; and because the North refuses to concede what she asks, and what she has a right to demand, the secessionists, instead of maintaining and defending their rights thus denied and ignored by the North, counsel the Southern people to surrender the whole of the Territory to the North and then run away! And so as to all other rights and properties belonging to us in the Union—According to the secessionists, we should leave them all behind to be enjoyed exclusively by our enemies, and be exceedingly thankful, also if the North should graciously allow to "abscond" in peace! We utterly repudiate such counsels and such a policy.

We say let war with all its horrors come, rather than the South should resort to secession, and leave all her rights, for which she has long contended, in the hands of her enemies.
